

TANZANIA LEAGUE OF THE BLIND (TLB)

Advert for auditor

Background

Tanzania League of the Blind (TLB) is a registered Civil Society Organization (CSO) that is committed to improve the quality of life of people with visual impairment in Tanzania through lobbying and advocacy; awareness raising; information sharing; facilitating access to education and vocational training; and economic empowerment. This is the only national CSO operated by the blinds and visually impaired themselves in Tanzania. It has around 35,245 members with 104 district branches countrywide.

Currently, TLB is implementing a project on access to quality inclusive education to persons with visual impairment and those with albinism. This project is implemented in four districts of Kilwa, Kiteto, Kasulu and Nyasa.

In ensuring TLB is implementing his activities and is adhering to the accounting procedures, the organization has decided to find an auditor who will play the role of project auditor.

TLB is seeking a qualified auditor with the following qualifications.

1. Be registered with NBA,
2. Experience of more than 2 years,
3. Has good records in auditing,
4. Have experience to work with persons with disabilities.

Interested Candidates must submit the following items.

1. Signed Cover letter;
2. Current CV, maximum of 5 pages;
3. Business Documents: copy of a) Registration Certificate from NBA, b) TIN Certificate, c) Tax Clearance Certificate; and d) Up-to-date Business License.

How to apply

Interested auditing firms or Individuals who are officially registered by NBA are expected to submit a detailed expression of interest addressed to the Secretary General – TLB through email tanleb@yahoo.co.uk and copy to makombo57@yahoo.com before November 14th 2023.
